

Dear Parents/Caregivers,

To celebrate Children's Book Week we are holding a dress up parade on Friday 25 August. The whole school will gather at 8.30am in the undercover area to showcase our fabulous outfits that fit the theme of book week "Escape to Anywhere".

The students from Pre-primary to Year 6 will then be entertained by Sean Murphy who will perform "Kid's Party Confidential" which is a story-telling adventure about how to have the best fiesta ever.

Building on from the show our students in Years 4-6 will be engaged in a 45 minute workshop where they will be challenged to create their own jokes and gags by applying simple joke-writing techniques.

We look forward to seeing the amazing costumes that our children will be wearing.

Regards
