

C22 have been learning about mapping and grid coordinates. We created a Yaburara walking trail with a few key places marked on the map. We then had to leave 'our house' and make our way around the Island using grid coordinates and a scale in kilometres. Some of us added extra landmarks.

