

Hmmm... What do I need first, next, after that and finally?

Making WOMBAT STEW with ECE 3!

Our Pre-primary classes have been using this story by Mem Fox, to learn how to write procedures.

When we are creating procedures, we have an audience who wants to learn how to do something. Therefore our writing needs to let the audience know what they need and what actions to take to get something done.

